Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

2. Claims 22, 27, 31 and 68 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipate by U.S. Patent No. 6,345,368 to Bergsten.

As concerns claims 22, 27, 31 and 68, receiving incoming data and transmitting the data for storage (fig. 30), writing a portion of the data in at least two data storage units (abstract-multiple copies in storage arrays); creating data storage information keys (col. 6, lines 34-45-address) corresponding to each of the at least two data storage units and comprising offset information corresponding to the location (col. 5, line 6) of the data portion in the at least two data storage units; storing the data storage information keys in a key manager (storage controllers); and retrieving the data portion from one or more of the at least two data storage units, wherein retrieving the data portion further comprises locating the data portion in one or more of the at least two data storage units using at least one of the data storage information keys, and retrieving the located data portion (col. 6, lines 34-45).

As concerns claims 22, 27 and 31, transmitting an acknowledgement (figure 30).
